International Association of Jazz Record Collectors

A meeting place for jazz record collectors and all those who love jazz music

About the IAJRC

Since 1964, the IAJRC has brought pleasure to its members by providing a world-wide forum and common meeting ground for those who share similar jazz interests.

Benefits of Membership

- ✓ The quarterly IAJRC Journal is considered one of the best jazz magazines in the world. Each page is filled with jazz history and biography, discography, analytical articles, reviews of recordings and books, and fascinating advertisements of new and old records. As a member, you will also enjoy the privilege of being able to place free limited size advertisements in the Journal, listing your "wants." A sample copy of the Journal is available for $3 or 5 IRCs to cover postage and handling.
- ✓ A copy of the IAJRC Membership Directory.
- ✓ The IAJRC catalog of its own jazz recordings and monographs is available to members at discount prices.
- ✓ The annual 3-day IAJRC convention is held in a different location each year. The event provides a wonderful experience for members and a great way to meet other members from around the world, talk about jazz and record collecting, swap records and other jazz memorabilia, listen to some varied and scholarly presentations and watch film shows on the jazz that we all love. You can also check out the wares of the various record dealers in attendance. In the evenings you can listen to some top-class live jazz music. On the Saturday night, we have our Banquet and Awards Ceremony, followed by some great live jazz.
